One of Wine Country's most historic properties, Hotel La Rose has anchored Santa Rosa's Railroad Square since 1907. With its Old World atmosphere, convenient location, and courteous professional staff, Hotel La Rose is perfect for both business executives and vacationers looking for a place to call home while exploring Sonoma County.

Let our charming boutique hotel be your gateway to Sonoma County's wineries, Redwood forests and beautiful Pacific coastline. Built in 1907 by Italian stonemasons, Hotel La Rose is a member of Historic Hotels of America. The hotel was registered on the National Trust for Historic Places and renovated in 1985.
